Selected Modern Humanist (or Humanistic) Organizations

Ethical Culture
    founder: Felix Adler (New York, 1870's)
    American Ethical Union
    Ethical Humanist Societies

Society for Humanistic Judaism founder: Rabbi Sherwin Wine (Birmingham, MI, 1960's)
    "Secular Humanistic Judaism"
    More info: Rabbi Adam Chalom (the Rabbi of Kol Hadash Humanistic Congregation in north suburban Chicago; Dean, International Institute for Secular Humanistic Judaism).

American Humanist Association founders: Unitarians (Chicago, 1920's) then Curtis Reese and John Dietrich (Chicago, 1941)
    Education and Advocacy

The Humanist Society
    founders: Quakers (California, 1930's)
    Certifies Humanist "clergy"

Humanists International founder: Coalition (Amsterdam, 1952)

Council for Secular Humanism founders: Paul Kurtz with the Center for Inquiry (New York, 1990's)

Americans United for the Separation of Church and State founder: Coalition of religious and non-religious (Washington, D.C., 1948)
    Education and Advocacy

Secular Coalition for America
    founder: Coalition (Washington, D.C., 2000's)
    Lobbying for inclusion of non-religious voices

Secular Student Alliance founder: Coalition (Ohio, 2000)
    Campus student organizing